LOCAL BREVITIES.

[From Morning Edition.] Tom Kitt, of Dayton, was run in on charge of intoxication Friday afternoon.

The wigwam has been leased by the republican central committee for the campaign. Probate Judge Miller issued a marriage license, Friday, to Francis M. Ransom and

Anna Fatzinger. An amateur base ballist at Xenia is reported as having chased a cow bawl half across the field before he discovered his mistake,

The name of Mat, Malia graced the slate of the station house Friday night, with the charge of disorderly against it. Officer Ward landed the catch,

Birt Verner and John Garnett were pulled Friday evening by Officers Nickles, Mast and Bass, for jumping a moving train contrary to the city ordinance.

. Thursday was pensioner's day and the offices of the clerk and probate judge were crowded with pensioners making out their quarterly vouchers.

In the county clerk's office, yesterday, Joshua L. Rust filed a petition in replevin against Trostle & Hahn, claiming property to the amount of $100.

Messrs, E. Kraus & Co. have rented the Harwood grocery stand on the corner of Fair and Mechanic streets, and will soon open with a stock of goods.

The patrol wagon answered a call from box 50, on York street, Friday afternoon, and brought in Martin Bolan on a charge of drunk and disorderly. The Bainbridge bicycling party, John

Bacon, Roscoe Pierce and Will Rice, returned yesterday. The longest run they made was eixty miles on Wednesday. Dr. E. Myers has removed from South Limestone to spartments in Bookwalter's block, instead of Buckingham block, as erroneously reported yesterday. The 74th O. V. I. held a successful reunion at the Xenia Orphans' home on Thursday. J. M. Smalley, of this city, was re-elected secretary of the organization. Another chapter of Hugh Conway's famous story, "Carrington's Gift," will be published in Sunday's GLORE REPUBLIC. If you are not taking the paper, order it by telephone. Mr. William Myers, who was injured by Frank Wagner, is still suffering from his wound. It is supposed that some of the bones of his face are broken. He was no better Friday evening. Martin Bolan was arrested as a drunk and disorderly by Officer Norton on York street last evening. Martin was sweeping the pavement with his coat and daring everyone he met to tread on its tail. Mrs. Rachel Humbarger, a former well known lady of this city, died at Tampico-

Ind., on Monday evening, August 17th, of malarial fever. Mrs. William Freeze, of this county, is a daughter of the deceased. Officer Colwell, of Urbana, secured R. S. King and R. C. Emery, of the "Dr. Yeeze" gang, who had skipped that town for an assault upon Doc Firzmartin. The blooming pair now languish in the Urbana bastile. Bill Nye has written for the Sunday GLOBE-REPUBLIC a most laughable and side-splitting article on "The Two Figures," a discussion of gods and philosophers. Any one who don't want to laugh better not tackle the article. We are pained to announce that Carson & Fox are called upon to mourn the loss of a descendant of a favorite feline. The demise is said to have been facilitated by Chas, Shaw and a stout piece of weather-boarding. The mother still survives. Engineer Bob Kaylor is now considered in a fair way to get better. An improvement in his case was noted on Friday. There are no internal injuries, as was at first supposed. Two ribs and a collar bone broken comprise the damage to his anatomy.

Robert Brain, the successful young jouralist of this city, had oc to Xenia yesterday. While viewing the grand suburban scenery of that city en route he had the mi-fortune to lose his hat. Robert is now wearing a last year's straw head-gear.

The mountains of East Tennessee are a most tertile field for entertaining correspondence, and Sunday's GLOSE-REPUBLIC will contain a deeply interesting letter on the inhabitants of that region and their characteristics as snuff-dippers, from the pen of Miss Nellie A. Grace.

Yesterday afternoon, Charles Murphy was arrested on Washington street for participating in a fight with William Greenwood, at Armstrong's boiler shop last Wednesday. They had to chase him, and when Officer Ward caught him, both fell into the gutter the officer barking his shins badly.

A distinguished citizen of this city who was in attendance at the state fair succumbed to the drowsy goddess on his way home Friday evening and was fast asleep when the train arrived here. The train was backed into the night yard, where the citizen found himself late in the night. He made up something to explain his late arrival home.

The picked nine that went from here to Washington C. H. to play ball Thursday, and came back with a score of 16 to 15 against them, say that the umpire, Hildebrant, actually put them on the toasting fork, but Hildebrant says that he could not play the game successfully for Springfield and umpire at the same time, the line must be drawn somewhere.

A most delightful childrens' party was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Farmer, in honor of their little daughter, Edith's birthday. About twenty little tolks were the guests of Miss Edith on the occasion, and they were delightfully taken care of by Mrs. Farmer. After refretreshments the children returned to their homes at about 8 o'clock.

The Topeka, Kansas, papers contain accounts of the golden wedding of George Hutchinson and wife, recently celebrated there. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson left this part of the state fifty years ago, and were married against the wishes of their relatives. Mr. Hutchinson has a sister still residing in this city at the age of 86.

James Henry, the man who was killed at Goe's station. Thursday evening, while the down local freight was switching freight in the Miami Powder Company's yards, had been in the employ of the Powder company just eleven years, that day being the eleventh anniversary of his connection with the works. This is rather a singular coincidence. The funeral takes place today.

The Clark county treasurer, W. S. Wilson, will surrender his office on next Monday to treasurer-elect John W. Parsons. Messrs. Col. Stewart, for the republicans, and Abe R. Ludlow, for the prohibitionists, were appointed to count the funds in the treasury. Mr. John Bishop was first appointed to represent the democrats, but he declined, hence the appointment of a representative of hence the appointment of a representative of Charles Bird, charged with perjury, was ar-an opposition party in the person of Ludlew raigued and trial set for Tuesday next.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Organization of the County Central Com-

[From Morning Edition.]
Pursuant to the call made by State Central Committeeman, John Kinnane, the democratic county central committee met at the Jefferson club room Friday afternoon for the purpose of organizing. Reporters were locked out, but the official action of the committee was learned from reliable authority. It was fully 3:30 o'clock before enough of the committee had gathered for a quorum. When eighteen members had gathered they were called to order by Mr. Kinnane, who was elected permanent chairman of the committee. William Russell was elected permanent sec-

E. O. Hagan presented the resignation of Robert McCullough, member from Springfield township, and, on his motion, J. J. McGreevy was elected to fill his place. T. F. Meranda, of New Carlisle, resigned his membership because he is postmaster at New Carlisle, and O. F. Dillman was elected in his place. A. J. Rust also rose to say that he was postmaster at Catawba, but preferred to resign the postmastership and remain on the committee.

When these vacancies in the committee were filled the question of an executive conmittee came up, and on Hagan's motion the following committee was appointed by the chair to make up the list : Barney Brennan, A. J. Rust and E. O. Hagan. This committee reported the following executive committee, which was confirmed: William Blee, John Kinnane, Azel B. Smith, William Brown of Catawba, and C. F. Rohrer of Trenont.

The resignation of Milton Coles as caudidate for prosecuting attorney was read and accepted. The question then arose as to who should be put on the ticket. The name of E. O. Hagan was suggested, but he refused emphatically. Frank Showers was then ofered the empty honor, but he refused it even nore emphatically. Nobody reemed to want it, and it was left in the hands of the executive committee to inflict upon whatever poor innocent may suit their fancy. The committee then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman. During the meeting Mr. Kinnane made a few remarks on the work of the cam-

Mayor's Court. Yesterday his honor decided the following cases: Jacob Bowen, petit larceny, $5 and costs and ten days in jail; John Merrett, drunk, $1 and costs; Mike King, drunk, $1 and costs; William Clark, violation of Sunday ligous ordinance, $1 of Sunday liquor ordinance, $40 and costs; John Burk, same offense, $40 and costs; Frank Hutchinson, gambling, $25 and costs.

MR: BIGGAM'S SIDE OF IT.

Not so Much "High Handed Piracy" About It After All.

But an Attempt by the Gazette to Violate an Agreement.

The attempt made by the Gazette to cast Mr. James Biggam, one of its former most trusted and esteemed circulators, into ill repute because he choose to take the circulation of the GLOBE-REPUBLIC in the eastern portion of the city and drop the Gazette, is reacting in a most decided manner against the Gazette.

Mr. Biggam has lived many years in Springfield and by his own efforts has built up for himself a most excellent reputation both for honesty and energy. This is his principal capital, and an attempt born of spite, to roo him of this character is a direct theft as contemptible as if it had been his purse which had been filched.

Mr. Biggam has scores of friends in this city who are indignant at the treatment he has received from the Gazette, and they have come to his rescue unsolicited, and denounce the paper's spiteful action as unwarranted and unjust. So intense has been this feeling that fourteen of Mr. Biggam's subscribers who at first decided to continue the Gazette after he left it have reversed their decision on account of the Gazette's abuse of Mr. Biggam, and have instructed him to bring now of Austin, Texas, is shaking hands with them the Grons-Republic, and state that they would not continue to support a paper which would so wantonly abuse a man when it could not use him.

Regarding Mr. Biggam's connection with the Gazette, and his subsequent action in coming over to the GLORE-REPUBLIC, there is little to say, so far as this paper is concerned, other than the statements made in his affidavit, which is published below. The Grong-Republic is news-paper, and, as the people know, is the only one in the city which receives a line of telegraph, and which is, therefore, able to give the news of the world when it happens. It does not fill the columns of its daily issues with stale news dished up in plate forms and shipped by freight from Cincinnati. The present company is duly incorporated under the laws of the state, and has come to Springfield to stay. It has invested money here and while it has no idea of "building up a newspaper monopoly of the entire city," to quote the Gazette's words, it does entertain a most decided intention of giving Springfield a thoroughly enterprising, progressive, and reliable newspaper. It has no cliques or factions to serve, and is a newspaper which will give every man, no matter how poor, absolute justice in its columns. comes to the rescue of Mr. Biggam, whom it Gazette by legal process. The following affi-davit of Mr. Biggam is cheerfully given room:

STATE OF OHIO, STATE OF OHIO,
COUNTY OF CLARK.
Personally appeared before me, a notary public for and in the above named county,

James Biggam, who being duly sworn de-poseth and saith: My name is James Biggam. I reside in Springfield, O., and am twenty-nine years old. That on or about January 1, 1885, Thos. E. Harwood, proprietor of the Springfield Daily Gazette, entered into an agreement with me whereby I was to have the exclusive agency of the Daily Gazette (so far as its circulation was concerned), in certain districts of the city of Springfield. That in order to make a special inducement for me to take th make a special inducement for his of the territory, the said T. E. Harwood offered of his own volition to give me the papers at one-sixth of a cent each less than the other circustith of a cent each less than the other circustith of a cent each less than the other circustith of a cent each less than the other circustith of a cent each less than the other circustith of a cent each less than the other circustith of a cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than the other circustith of the cent each less than lators were paying, and that in proof of this agreement be caused to be published in his paper the following notice:

subscribers to the Daily Gazette, east of and on York street, will tak Biggam is now an authorized agent for that part of the city and will, hereafter, make collections promptly every week. Mr. Biggam's territory ex-tension also on Lagonda avenue, including the vill-age Lagonda. He will in a few days solicit autoiptions throughout this entire territory.

That acting on this agreement I devoted my time to canvassing for and circulating the Gazette, and largely increased the number of its subscribers, and that on or about the 26th day of August last, the said T. E. Harwood notified me that he would no longer allow me the discount and that he desired that hereaf-ter I should pay him the full price of one cent each for papers. As this was in direct violation of agreement, and as I was just beginning to get the territory on a paying basis and considered myself entitled to a fulfillment of the agreement on the said T. E. Harwood's I refused to accede, teeling he was taking an undue advantage. I then called upon he GLOBE-REPUBLIC and asked F.S. Presbrey, its manager, if I could have the same tertory for the GLORE-REPUBLIC I had had for Gazette. He stated that he would give it to me, and I therefore resolved to accept it and drop the Gazette.

On the day that I decided to make this change I notified the said Harwood, and as it was impossible to see all my subscribers that day I notified them of the change by attachday I notified trem of the ing slips to the GLOBE-REPUBLIES which I delivered. I further state that I hold the said Harwood's receipt in full for all claims against me up to, and including August 21, and state that I am entitled under notice putlished in the Gazette to make all collections for papers delivered up to and including
